Opioid and Heroin Addiction Epidemic: Virginia Grants Received

The Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services (DBHDS) receives specific federal grant funding to combat opioid abuse. Ongoing grants are listed below:

Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services Grants
Federal Grants	FY2017	FY2018
508710090-Drug & Heroin Abuse- prevention Grant	$349,990	$0
508720090-Drug & Heroin Abuse- Prevention Grant	$825,000	$0
510110090- Opioid Prevention Treatment & Recovery Grant (Opioid STR)	$573,790	$9,188,542
Source: Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services

Of the nearly $9.2 million federal grant dedicated for opioids in FY2018, $5 million is being allocated to Community Service Boards (CSBs) with high need and is focusing on providing individuals with evidence-based treatment services. These services include Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) using one of three medications approved by the FDA, as well as clinical care, case management and support.

Additionally, the majority of DBHDS substance abuse funding comes from the $42 million in a Substance Abuse block grant, including prevention and opioid related service. Of the SAPT funds, 70% is used for treatment.

Note: This list may not be comprehensive of Virginia federal grant funding regarding opioids.
